

Supergarage, Tomorrow Tomorrow

I'm a straight c college graduate dealing petty crime
I'm a dreamer dumb and happy in a desperate time

Hey tomorrow, you say wait tomorrow, I say no way tomorrow,
But tomorrow don't do no good when I'm gone

Why is everybody asking what you do with your life

I say that I'd give you an answer if you give me a line

Give it up and give it all like a saturday night
Or you keep oh you keep it cool like a sunday drive
I won't be no bitter fool, I ain't livin no lie
I don't care that I got no time to
