

Supergroove, You Freak Me

If I met you
I'd probably hate you
But I never got to
So I love you
So I, love, hate you
Staring a hole in me like I'm see through
You vex me
I'm fumbling
Every time I turn around you're there
You freak me

You freak me

Hey you looking at me
Was I looking at you
Butterflies in my pants
Got ants in my heart
If I could, I would talk to you
Walk away
Try to pretend I'm unaffected but
Who started this?
Wasn't me
Speak now or forever hold your peace

You freak me

You freak me

You freak me, yeah you kinda weaken me
I wanna be free, you just wanna freak me
I want to go at night, you just wanna love fight
You wanna slice up my Jimmy like a jack knife
You freak me, waiting for the time to arise
To boot and shoot me between the eyes
So I pay today while you slay

I remember
The lines on your face
Watch them move
And themselves erase
You freak me

You freak me, yeah you kinda weaken me
I wanna be free, you just wanna freak me
I want to go at night, you just wanna love fight
You wanna slice up my Jimmy like a jack knife
You freak me, waiting for the time to arise
To boot and shoot me between the eyes
So I pay today while you slay
