

Superheist, Bullet

My black heart is stained
With the price of betrayal
I hope you get what you fought for
In this life you live
So you wanna be a star Such a pretty, pretty, pretty star
Things have gone from bad too worse
A fractured kiss that made me curse you
I've ceased to breathe Anaesthetized by your disguise Honesty brokered, I infest you with despise

Things have gone from bad too worse
Things have gone from bad too worse
Things have gone from bad too worse
Things have gone from bad too worse

Since you left me, I've become a shadow of you Razor loving eyes, I've got a bullet for you four walls and a view of you Cold bed of blood I brew to entice you Eat the poison of anothers embrace

It's all in your face the lies that I cannot trace
In a room where you die alone
In a room where you die alone
In a room where you die alone
In a room where you die alone

Since you left me, I've become a shadow of you Razor loving eyes I've got a bullet for you

how, why
Things have gone from bad too worse
Things have gone from bad too worse
Things have gone from bad too worse
Things have gone from bad too worse
Things have gone from bad too worse
Things have gone from bad too
Things have gone from bad too worse
Things have gone from bad too worse
Things have gone from bad too worse
Things have gone from bad too worse

Since you left me, I've become a shadow of you
Razor loving eyes I've got a bullet for you

a bullet for you
a bullet for you
a bullet for you
a bullet for you
a bullet for you
a bullet for you!
