

Supertramp, Home Again

When is the time when a dream has gone wrong when you're with me
When is the time when a blame went to you please forgive me
But the truth is my friend that the world isn't quite as I thought it to be
Oh no, I wish I were back home again
Oh no, I wish I were back home again
Oh no, I wish I were back home again
La la , I wish I were back home again
