

Surfdog7, Milk 'N' Honey

Yesterday i saw an old man with a smile, he was talking to me he was talking about a land where everything is free everybody is lazy and crazy, lying on the ground, nobody's moving and i want to see just that land the real fun of it, is what i'm having see myself step inside on a movie of mine where everybody is trying to move me in a society of pressure, everybody wants to prove me the old man again, with his land - that's a fantasy that is able to move me so I started to ask the old man

the real fun of it, is what i'm having

everybody sing pearl jam's alive I know that we are all alive that is a fact we can't deny why do so many say that we are'nt today I've got a heart that is not stone it is always opened wide for everybody who's coming to my side

I want to be in a land where honey and milk falls down on me I want to know where this land is

yesterday i saw an old man with a smile, he was talking to me
he was talking about a land where everything is free
everybody is lazy and crazy, lying on the ground, nobody's moving and i want to talk about that land

the real fun of it, is what i'm having

everybody sings pearl 's alive
I know that we are all alive
why do so many say that we are'nt today
I've got a heart that is not stone
it is always opened wide for everybody who's coming to my door

I want to be in a land where honey and milk falls down on me
I want to know where this land is
I want to be in a land where honey and milk falls down on me
I want to go where the sun is