

Susanna Hoffs, Right By You

Written by Kimm Rogers
Produced by Matt Wallace
Previously unreleased (1994)

Don't wanna be over your head
I don't wanna be under your feet
Don't wanna make any demands
We can't possibly meet
Don't wanna be too transparent
Don't wanna be too discreet
Don't wanna seem way too loose
Don't wanna be too concrete.

I wanna be right by you
In a city full of wrong way signs
I wanna be right by you
I wanna be left in your mind
Wanna be right by you
I wanna be right by you
Right now
Wanna be right by you right now
Wanna be right.

Don't wanna be overconfident
Don't wanna be too withdrawn
Don't need to be always right
Don't wanna have to always be wrong
Don't wanna be without the challenge
Don't want us to have to compete
Don't wanna be out of balance
Just wanna stand on my own two feet.

Right by you
In a city full of wrong way signs
I wanna be right by you
I wanna be left in your mind
I wanna be right by you
I wanna be right by you
Right now
Wanna be right by you right now
Wanna be right.

Oh-hhh.

I wanna be right by you
In a city full of wrong way signs
I wanna be right by you
I wanna be left in your mind
I wanna be right by you
I wanna be right by you
Right now
Wanna be right by you right now
Wanna be right.

Right by you, right now (right by you)
Wanna be right (right by you)
Right now (right by you)
Right (right by you)
Only right (right by you)
Wanna be right (right by you)
Right now (right by you)
Wanna be right (right by you)
Right now (right by you).
