

Susie Suh, Give me heart

The water is rushing in
I feel it on my skin
Our boat is sinking now
I wake up
I grab my things
As the waves keep Rollin in
I ask myself
Oh whats the point?
Whats the point of it all?
Whats the point?
Give me heart
Just give me hope
Give me love
Just give me warmth
Give me all I never knew
Give me something
To hold on to
Time goes by so slow
When youre waiting
For a rescue boat
The waters getting cold
And the ocean
Is not a home
When you feel it
All alone
Well its time to let you go
Let you go
Let you go
All I ever really wanted was to
All I ever really wanted was to
All I ever really wanted was to Dream
Give me heart
Just give me hope
Give me love
Just give me warmth
Give me all I never knew
Give me something
To hold on to
Give me heart
Just give me hope
Give me love
Just give me warmth
Give me all I never knew
Give me something
To hold on to
Give me heart
Just give me hope
Give me love
Just give me warmth
Give me all I never knew
Give me something
To hold on to
