

Suziquatro, Prisoner Of Your Imagination

(Quatro/Tuckey)

I believe you think I'm cheating
Visions in your mind
But seeing is believing
You're a prisoner of your imagination
You're a prisoner of your imagination

Late last night I was sleeping
What you saw was a dream
Nightmares only scare children
You're a prisoner of your imagination
You're a prisoner of your imagination

Of your imagination
Of your imagination
Of your imagination
Of your imagination

You're playing around with my life
Imagine I'm telling you lies
You're looking through hate coloured eyes
Surrounded by a rosy disguise

Of your imagination
Of your imagination
Of your imagination
Of your imagination

Oh I see your heart is aching
Mamma's boy's feeling grey
Live in the misery you're making
You're a prisoner of your imagination
You're a prisoner of your imagination

You're playing around with my life
Imagine I'm telling you lies
You're looking through hate coloured eyes
Surrounded by a rosy disguise

You're a prisoner of your imagination
You're a prisoner of your imagination
You're a prisoner of your imagination
You're a prisoner of your imagination
You're a prisoner of your imagination
You're a prisoner of your imagination
You're a prisoner of your imagination
You're a prisoner of your imagination
