

Suzy Bogguss, Look What Love Has Done To Me

(Rob Mathes/Stephanie Lewis)

Where once the moon was just a rock spinning in the sky
Where once the stars were only tiny points of light
Now the moon looks like it's heaven's shining pearl
Now those stars, they look like windows into another world
Look what love has done to me, look what love has done
There's poetry in all I see, look what love has done
And my heart is dancing through each day
My soul is running free
Look what love has done to me
Where once each breath was just a sign of aching emptiness
Where once I hardly felt the beating in my chest
Now each breath feels like a precious kiss of life
Now inside me beats the winds of a thousand butterflies
Look what love has done to me, look what love has done
This must be how it's meant to be, look what love has done
And my heart is dancing through each day
My soul is running free
Look what love has done to me
And I can't tell was that a violin, or did you say something
Was that lightning striking where I stand
Or did you just reach out and take my hand
Look what love has done to me, look what love has done
There's poetry in all I see, look what love has done
And my heart is dancing through each day
My soul is running free
Look what love has done to me
