

Swan Lee, Lord Knows, I Can Be Strong

Dawn is breaking from neon
All your leaves are burning brown
I can wait for eons
Until then
I will stay here

Like a door that keeps revolving
It will spin you round and round
Some day love will blind me
Until then
I will stay here

Show me all your strength
I know you can save me
From myself
Lord knows, I can be strong

Put your two and two together
Close your eyes and count to ten
Some day life will greet me
Until then
I will be here

Show me all your strength
I know you can save me
From myself
Lord knows, I can be strong
