

Sweet, Dorian Gray

Why all those younger guys
Falling for you in the looks disguise
Making you feel like you're thirty
Just being dirty
You think i care
Who was that millionaire
Showing you his piles of golden hair
He was so rich but uneasy
Trying to tease me
But I don't care
Painting your face
Finding the pace of life
Beautiful past under the mask You wear
You're a movie star
Who's caught in a dream
The silver stream
You know what I mean
How can you sleep at night
Knowing the secrets, secrets, secrets
Secrets you locked up tight
Taking the chip off your shoulder it's good being older
Without a care
Painting your face
