

Sweet Matthew, You Don't Love Me

What a beautiful moment
The truth comes out at last
Once your heart
Would own me forever
Then this passed
And what a beautiful moment
As my head comes apart
Drunk and
In a manner of saying, wasted
'Cause you don't love me
You don't love me
You can't see how
I matter in this world
Even though I loved you
You can't believe that
If you find something
You think might make you happy
Then I guess it's okay
I think it's okay
If you go away
Blown right out of my senses
I did not know what to do
Lost and badly wanting someone
To see me through
That's why I needed you
But you don't love me
You don't love me
You can't see how
I matter in this world
Even though I loved you
