

Sweet, Too Much Talking

Too much talking tells you nothing
Tells you nothing you don't know
Let you thinking thru the walking
Too much talking
Too much talking
Too much talking tells you nothing
Tells you nothing you don't know
Don't sell your story like a preacher
Together glory in their eyes
Do what you can to understand
You know you can you do
No matter how long or what your going thru
Too much talking tells you nothing
Tells you nothing you don't know
Let you thinking thru the walking
Too much talking
Too much talking
Too much talking tells you nothing
Tells you nothing you don't know
Why do you try to be the teacher
Off all the reaches for the sky
Do what you can to understand
You know you can you do
No matter how long or what your going thru
Too much talking
Too much talking
Too much talking
Too much
Too much talking tells you nothing
Tells you nothing you don't know
Let you thinking thru your walking
Too much talking
Too much talking
