

Sweetbox, Here Comes The Sun

Here comes the sun
Here comes the sun

Feeling lost, feeling tossed, like I don't know
Feeling choppy, disconnected, like a bad strobe
Like a song that's never finished
I need a last note, but it never comes

And the choir sings halle-lu-jah
You see that sun shining through ya I don't know
Guess I'm pessimistic, I don't feel it

Here comes the sun
Here comes the sun
Here comes the day
Another trial to just get through
Here comes the sun
Here comes the sun
What can we do?
Let it shine on down and just breathe easy

Tied in knots, lost in thoughts, a kaleidoscope
Feeling nauseous over cautious
Like I'm on bad dope
I'm a bored cadenza, an old hook-line that you forgot

And they all say you've got everything
The looks, the man, the brass ring
But I wish I had their optimism, life goes on though

Here comes the sun
Here comes the sun
Here comes the day
Another trial to just get through
Here comes the sun
Here comes the sun
What can we do?
Let it shine on down and just breathe easy

Shadowboxing with the toxins in my bloodstream
Isolated, un-elated I'm on morphine
I'm a violin that no one hears
I'm gently weeping the sweetest tones

It's a woman's nature to keep surviving
And they'll throw rocks, but we'll keep smiling
'Cause in the end it's so simplistic, keep on walking

Here comes the sun
Here comes the sun
Here comes the day
Another trial to just get through
Here comes the sun
Here comes the sun
What can we do?
Let it shine on down and just breathe easy

Here comes the sun
Here comes the sun
Here comes the day
Another trial to just get through
Here comes the sun
Here comes the sun
What can we do?

Let it shine on down and just breathe easy

It's a woman's nature to keep surviving
And they'll throw rocks, but we'll keep smiling
'Cause in the end it's so simplistic
You gotta keep on walking
