

Swell, Wash Your Brain

It would seem that the time is now
It would seem that the place is there
It would be such a perfect thing
I would say that the curse is on
1. better let that voodoo play
2. every goddamn lovely day
3. better let that voodoo play
4...
Your t.v. and talking is wasting my time
I see trouble on the good side
You better wash your fucking mind
Yes it seems like a worthy prize
... Like there's no mistake
It would be such a perfect time
I would say slam your own down first
Every single day, I hear every bit of promise
In the things that you don't say
I won't mention names
Just that every single moment
Isn't wasted my own way... So what?
I see trouble on the good side
You better wash your fucking mind
