

Swingin' Utters, Glad

Some sang their songs like flying on uppers
so sweet and smug that I lose my supper

some mumble psalms of solace and virtue hang by their palms
and choke on the cud they chew

I'm glad we met
So sad you left
Sometimes the sweetest things turn sour

Love songs are cheap and only get cheaper They prey on the meek
Who only get Meeker
Cliches sung by stars
Looks so good on paper
Each bar fed to you
A communion wafer

I'm glad we met(so glad)
So sad you left
Sometimes the sweetest things turn sour

Don't even think of being average Cuz you're so much more to me than edequate I'm hanging on to every word you speak I'll burn the torch until you come to me

I'm glad we met(so glad)
So sad you left
Sometimes the sweetest things turn sour
The time we spent(so glad) Was heaven sent Opened my eyes and stole my hours

glad we met 8x
