

Swiss Lips, Carolyn

Hey Hey, Carolyn
Get into my car
Kick your feet up on the dashboard
Hey hey Carolyn
We can take her far,
Feel the heat up on the asphalt

Follow me down to where the darkness divides
Come and teach me 'bout the afterlife
Wild is the night we see our colours collide
We've got heart we've got an ocean to find
You can be a queen in my eyes,
We can fall apart for the last time.

Hey Hey, Carolyn
Get into my car
Kick your feet up on the dashboard
Hey hey Carolyn
We can take her far,
Feel the heat up on the asphalt

Foot to the plate as falling stars are aligned
Your reflection in the near side
Many a saint has tried to take you alive
Hey hey baby you're a paradise
You can be a queen in my eyes
We can fall apart for the last time

Hey Hey, Carolyn
Get into my car
Kick your feet up on the dashboard
Hey hey Carolyn
We can take her far,
Feel the heat up on the asphalt
