

Switched, Empty Promises

Faceless, lost in the shadows, searching, for someone to notice.
Forced to, live within your problems, the life that's, much to real.

When your, kicking, screaming, all you can to be heard.
Starting to crumble.

Close your eyes and fill your lives with,
empty promises, hold them inside.
Cause the harder you fall, the more, you fail to hide.
Your empty promises.

Losing, control of your lives, hoping, to live another night.
You're left with, so much to offer, should put, up a better fight.

When your, kicking, screaming, all you can to be heard.
Starting to crumble.

Close your eyes and fill your lives with,
empty promises, hold them inside.
Cause the harder you fall, the more, you fail to hide.
Your empty promises, your empty promises...

Your empty!, promises.
Your empty!, promises.

Close your eyes and fill your lives with,
empty promises, hold them inside.
Cause the harder you fall, the more, you fail to hide.
Close your eyes and fill your lives with,
empty promises, hold them inside.
Cause the harder you fall, the more, you fail to hide.
Your empty promises, your empty promises (to hide), your empty promises, your empty promises.
Your empty promises.
