

Switched, Memories of You

I got this fucked up feeling that I don't belong here anymore
Dragged me through the mud like you do, like you do
I'm so sick of the way you think and controlling everything and everyone
And I know it's going to kill me... just kill me

I'm don't, I don't see that everything is all right
And I know that I know that you slowly know

I can't see the writings on the wall
There's nowhere to go, nowhere to go
Take my life and sell everything
I don't need these memories of you, of you, of you, of YOU

I remember one time, the late september and I was feeling fine
You were on my mind and I saw your face, it made me sick
Cause everything is not hard
Makes me want to kill me

I'm don't, I don't see that everything is all right
And I know that I know that you slowly know

I can't see the writings on the wall
There's nowhere to go, nowhere to go
Take my life and sell everything
I don't need these memories of you, of you, of you, of you

Yeah
Yeah
Yeah

I can't see the writings on the wall
There's nowhere to go, nowhere to go
Take my life and sell everything
I don't need these memories of you, of you, of you, of YOU

Memories of you
Memories of you
Memories of you
Memories of you
Memories of you
