

Switched, Who Feels

No reason why, you stay awake, can't sleep at night.
Cannot except you haunt yourself.
You left the window open wide,
and when the sunlight hits your face, does it show, all the pain, you've kept inside?

when did you lose your faith?
when did you stop believing? oh,
How could you run from me?
How could you stop believing that I don't know you?

When you're lost, all alone, so confused and scared.
You're not the only one who ever feels like that.

Who ever feels like that.

I can't imagine why, it's self inflicted don't deny.
You can't protect you from yourself.
With every window open wide,
I saw the sunlight blind your face, and it showed, all the pain, you've kept inside.

when did you lose your faith?
when did you stop believing?
how could you run from me?
how could you stop believing that I don't know you?

When you're lost, all alone, so confused and scared.
You're not the only one who ever feels like that
It's no more or no less, than what we had.
But you're the only one who ever feels like that.

Oh, and you're not the only one who feels like this, oh.

When you're lost, all alone, so confused and scared.
You're not the only one who ever feels like that
It's no more or no less, than what we had.
But you're the only one who ever feels like that.

You're not the only one, who ever feels like that.
