

Switched, Wrongside

I've made some mistakes in my life
I've pushed them away, and I feel alone, and I feel alone

Wait for something more, I will shed
This part of me...

Wait for something more, I will shed
This part of me...

Take my will from me, you burn my eyes
But I can't see

Confuse our lives for misery
You lock me out, and throw away the key
and I feel alone

and I feel alone

Yeah

Wait for something more, I will shed
This part of me...

Wait for something more, I will shed
This part of me...

Yeah

Every morning now I wake up on the wrong side
Every morning now I wake up on the wrong side
Every morning I wake up on the wrong side
Every morning now I wake up on the wrong side

But every morning now I wake up on the Wrong Side
But every morning now I wake up on the Wrong Side
But every morning now I wake up on the Wrong Side
But every morning I wake up on the Wrong Side

Every morning I wake up on the Wrongside
Every morning I wake up on the Wrongside
Every morning I wake up on the Wrongside
Every morning I wake up on the Wrong...

Wait for something more, I will shed
This part of me...

Wait for something more, I will shed
This part of me...
