

Switchfoot, Home

It's a long way from Miami to L.A.
It's a longer way from yesterday to where I am today
It's a long way from my thoughts to what I'll say
It's a long, long way from paradise to where I am today

All that's in my head
Is in Your hands

It's a long way from the moon up to the sun
It's a longer road ahead of me, the road that I've begun
Stop to think of all the time I've lost
Start to think of all the bridges that I've burned that must be crossed

Over, over, over
Take me over

I've been poison
I've been rain
I've been fooled again
I've seen ashes
Shine like chrome
Someday I'll see home
Home, home

I can see the stars from way down here
But I can't fall asleep behind the wheel
It's a long way from the shadows in my cave
Up to Your reality to watch the sunlight taking

Over, over, taking over,
Take me over

I've been poison
I've been rain
I've been fooled again
I've seen ashes
Shine like chrome
Someday I'll see home
Oh

All that's in my head
Is in Your hands
If it's in my head
It's in Your hands
It's in my head
It's in Your hands

It's in Your hands
