

Switchfoot, Under The Floor

Under the floor between me and the door
There's a presence I cannot deny
It's under the car between me and the stars
I see glory filling up the sky

And I'm certain that He hears me
He listens even as
I sing my song
I'm emphatic that He's near me
And I can see His touch
In everything here

Deep is the soul, is the space I control
Is the one thing I can call as mine
Deeper the cold when He's far from my soul
I surrender all of me inside

And I'm certain that He hears me
He listens even as
I sing my song
I'm emphatic that He's near me
And I can see His touch
In everything here
Yeah, You're everything here

And I'm certain that He hears me
He listens even as
I sing my song
I'm emphatic that He's near me
And I can see His touch
In everything here
Yeah, You're everything here
Yeah, You're everything here
