

Sybreed, Plasmaterial

And once again
We fill the silence
So far away
From being evil
To wait for deliverance
We conceal ourselves
Into the flame of a perfect plan
And we stand alone
Separated
Were floating down
To come let.....
Crash in the blame
Reflect in vanity
We live to lie
And to betray
And we stand alone
Separated
We live to close
I found time to change my inner thoughts
When I used to swallow my tongue
To close out eyes as we descend
And lost out will in self affliction
The force of mystery in our hearts
We're so sick to live this way
Between time, a flick of light
Walk in the darkness
Run away
The blind lust to kill our minds, drowning in misery
We cant find the right to live
We cant find surfaction
Find a pathetic realm called home
For stability
Piece of plasmaterial
We cant change our ways
Afraid to show our homes
With a day of damnation
Disconnected, we have no cause
Ill mend it to leave a stamp on the ground
And ill make it real for me
And defuse an altered reality
Surrounded by all delusions fractions of disarray of life
We forsee the ex-skeletal face
And it mass corrupts your LIFE
And we stand alone
Separated
We wont fall to far
Someone in our way
We have raped the disease
The genesis of fear
And its screaming out your name
