

Syleena Johnson, Dear You

It's crazy how the time goes by and you faithfully everyday been by my side Even through our hardest times
When I wouldn't talk to you or try to see your point of view So I'm writing to let you know that your paitience and your graciousness gave me strenght to help me grow And I appreciate the things that you've done, because your love have thought me how to be a better woman

Chorus

And you, Oh you, have always been down for me, even provided for me
And I, Oh I don't know would I'd do without you, cuz I can't be without you

And I'm sorry that I turned my back on you And holding you responsible for me not loving you And I know that I was wrong to feel that way But you, where the closest one to me to blame So I'm writing you to let you know that I was the only one responsible for my pain and my worries at times when I feel worthless, you still listen to my burdens and I'm so grateful

Chorus

Bridge

Im writing to tell you, can't be without you, oh please none above you, can't be without you I really do love you, can't be without you, I appreciate you and all that you do.
