

Sylver, Little Things

In an ocean of feelings
I don't know what to do
Althought I am the one who left
I just keep thinking of you
It makes me wont to cry
to know why I treated you
I am so sorry for what I did
I'll never find another love like you
Little things you did,
the sweet things you said
it made me feel so special I just can't forget Little things you did,
the sweet things you
it made me feel so special I just can't forget
In an ocean of feelings
I don't know what to do
Althought I am the one who left
I just keep thinking of you
It makes me won't to cry
to know why I treated you
I am so sorry for what I did
I'll never find another love like you
Little things you did,
the sweet things you said
it made me feel so special I just can't forget
Little things you did,
the sweet things you
it made me feel so special I just won't forget
