

Sylver, Sacrifice Me

You've been living your dream
Full of high self-esteem
But you never say the distance
Neglected my resistance
But now I say goodbye
To this superficial lie
WE can never be together
Endless stormy weather
I was the one that made you happy but...
I won't sacrifice me
Anymore
And I won't sacrifice me
Like before
You took the best of me
Can't have the rest of me
For it's all gone
And I won't sacrifice me
You've been living your dream
Guess I know what it means
To live up to expectations
To conquer your frustrations
But I've had it with you
Cause you don't have a clue
How to pay respect to me
Discover what I need
I was the one that made you happy but...
It saddens me to know
You can't see that you're alone
It saddens me to know
You think you still own me but...
