

Sylver, Time won't wait

don't be sad
i'm still here
our final night together one last chance to be with the one i love 'till the sun goes cold till the moon and stars grow old here with you, it's all i ever need time won't wait for anyone tonight
just hold me, console me make everything alright don't you cry
i'm still near one more night alone then i'll get to be
time is runnin' out for us and our last kiss it said so much just hold me now and don't let go
'cause time is runnin 'out
