

Symphony X, Fool's Paradise

(5:48)

What's become of the world - the colors unfurl revealing a blackened haze
Conditioned to fear the void
Oh - Empire of the Sea, Lords of technology that fell into the void
Oh shall it be as it was before - a
Is this the end of all we know - Innocence lost so long ago
Woven in dreams - the darkest of schemes
Death by design, altering birth - trends of the modern age the wisdom of life erased from the Earth

Oh - Empire of the Sea, Lords of technology that fell into the void
Oh shall it be as it was before - a
Is this the end of all we know - Innocence lost so long ago
Woven in dreams - the darkest of schemes
Dies Irae, Dies Illa, Solvet Saeculum in favilla

Decades of greed, plague, famine and war - we can't go on like this anymore living like fools - chaos
Is this the end of all we know - Innocence lost so long ago
Woven in dreams - the darkest of schemes
