

Symphony X, Revelation (Divus Pennae Ex Tragoedia)

Against the wall - they see you nowhere to run, nowhere to hide

Heroic Mask - The cracks are showing a Faceless God to shape the Perfect Lie

Wounds of Hate have pierced so deep they never die - my revenge is bittersweet

Lost in the night wandering alone
Try as I might to escape the fight
It never lets me go - oh no, oh no, I've got to find a way, a way, a way,
A way to Rise above it All

Savior or the Fool - the mystery fades into the cruel shade of night

This broken disguise can not comprehend what was, and will be.... until the very end

Wounds of hate have pierced so deep
they never die - my revenge is bittersweet

Lost in the night wandering alone
Try as I might to escape the fight
It never lets me go - oh no, oh no, I've got to find a way, a way, a way,
A way to Rise above it All

...oh, where the North Wind sleeps -that is when we'll meet again... oh, where the shadows creep into Twilight, I'll descend Good and Evil, it never ends You're just a means to an end

Lost in the night wandering alone
Try as I might to escape the fight
It never lets me go - oh no, oh no, I've got to find a way, a way, a way,

Lost in the night wandering alone
Try as I might to escape the fight
It never lets me go - oh no, oh no, I've got to find a way, a way, a way,
A way to Rise above it All
