

Symphony X, Set The World On Fire

God-like perfection
Reflect in these eyes
Reaching for my blade with stars on high
Tempt the betrayers - through twilight I fall
In the flame and I curse you all

There's no turning back
Falling deep into the sweep
Collapsing back

Fly with me, forever high
And with these wings
We'll set the world on fire
Fly with me
Through scorching skies
You and I - The lie of lies

I'm the master of illusion
Minister of sin
Two-faced snake, wicked shedding skin
I will forsake you
Destroy and unmake you
With all my might, I will take you down

There's no turning back
Falling deep within the sweep
Collapsing back

Fly with me, forever high
And with these wings
We'll set the world on fire
Fly with me
Through scorching skies
You and I - The lie of lies

Don't leave me
You need me
Only along the way

Fly with me, forever high
And with these wings
We'll set the world on fire
Fly with me
Through scorching skies
You and I - The lie of lies
