

Symphony X, The Walls Of Babylon

Down the plains, come hell riders
Blood of ice hissing breath
Consumed by this lust into battle
Staring down the eyes of death

Skies of red-winged thunder
Beathing lightning fire

Invaders
Light Slayers
Calm down the freedom betrayers
Dark destroyer
Can't avoid or deny us

War hammer of the gods
Bring down the walls of Babylon

Legions of lights
Beating down the Ma'am
Wings of war they pulverize
Wrath this my life
Feel the hatred

Crawling defying store the skies

Skies of red-winged thunder
Beathing lightning fire

Flesh tearing
Blood pouring
The veils of one are returning
With conviction now addiction is king

War hammer of the bods
Bring down the walls of Babylon

So you'll right step
Beyond the populous
God of Pain
In evil still

Casualty is a pride
I will never be denied
A lord of war at war with myself

Skies of red-winged with thunder
Breathing lightning fire

Earth shaking
Bones breaking
The hands of fates annulated
One by one the stars are falling

War hammer of the gods
Bring down the walls of Babylon
