

Symphony X, Wicked

Alone I traveled through the mountains
Led by a star fading west
When I came upon an ancient ruined church and there I stopped to rest

Then the black and gloomy night that chased my footsteps crashed down on me like a wave Whispering through the trees an eerie breeze carried a voice beckoning me to be her slave

In a whisper she said...

Burn forever
Leave never from my arms
Embrace the night

From the black and twisting shadows rose a woman beauty alluring to the eye Oh her devilish grin, her moonlit skin and long dark hair flowing down around her thighs

As she approached I felt the evil growing stronger I waltzed with the wicked within Frozen in my place, she kissed my face and in a storm of passion bathed me in sin

In the madness...she said...

Burn forever
Leave never from my arms
Embrace the night

Then she weaved a mist - and cast me into the shadows

"Come with me, love eternally, forever mine"
"Set me free - in death we'll dance eternally forever and ever..."

As so the light, cast down from the heavens, washed over me like a wave
I awoke, it seems, from some crazy dream only to find I was standing at her grave

In my nightmare...she said

Burn forever
Leave never from my arms
Embrace the night

Burn forever
Leave never from my arms
Don't ever leave me- never leave me

Burn forever
Leave never from my arms
Embrace the night
