(different times)

(different times)

...

(different times)

(different times)

Here I am again

I've come thru the different times in my life

Holding this is hard to fight alone

Sitting here in my red car on the road

This is my destiny

This was the fate

I got my freedom that noone can take

dream of me going to a place where I could stay escaping alive
finding my way
sun going down
and I'm gonna stay

I'm gonna fight the loneliness

'cause I've got enough

It's time for a change in life

'cause I've got enough

I'm gonna fight the loneliness

'cause I've got enough

It's time for a change in life

'cause I've got enough
