

System Of A Down, Don't Go Wandering

Everyday is nothing but stress to me
Constantly dwellin on how you got the best of me
Wanna know somethin
I cant believe the way you keep testin me
And mentally molestin me
But would you think any less of me
If i said that i'd be there
Would you think any less of me
If i said i really cared
Of course you would
Cause you
Only want what you cant have
As for me
I'm stuck with my dick in my hand
{chorus}
Because you don't feel nothing at all!!
You don't feel nothing at all
Maybe there's more to life then it seems
I'm constantly runnin from reality chasin' dreams
Wanna know somethin' i cant believe?
Just how much misery
Comes with humility
Do you think any less of me
Now that i'm gone?
Look at me now
Everything is gone
I cant seem to do anything right,
But i've figured out why you don't let me inside
{chorus}
Because you don't feel nothing at all!!
You don't feel nothing at all
You need nothin'
From me now
So you think
I'm useless to you now
But i
Need
One thing from you now
I
Insist
That you
Feel me now!!
You said you needed me
You said
You said
{chorus}
Because you don't feel nothing at all!!
You don't feel nothing at all
