(daron) this isn't very professional is it? I fucking hate equipment...I hate things that are not human. So if everybody wants to flip me off, give me your big finger right now. I wanna see how many fingers you got Holland! My guitars not working...I have nothing to do with this (serj-singing) Wishes come together as one
Super candle that's the sun
The candle burns deep inside his heart
His wax bind finally there
His wax bind they all had learned, the secrets of those that burn
In the valleys with a gun
But he still couldn't reach the su-su-su-sun
Nations come together as one
Send the children to the desert
Let them fizzle away and fry
But all in their own mother's eye
We can say or do most anything
As long as we're allowed to think
Let's make an example of them all
Take this institution down to a fall, now fall
Nations come together as one
Bah-dah-da-da
