

System Shock, Bleed

I have always been the one
Caressing the trigger of a gun
Red lights breaking the shadows of night
It's just a fire I've started
And since we'll vanish without a fight
I'm going first

So dark, so empty
I cross the line of death
So dark, so pretty
I die away from earth

Now I leave the endless night
My soul will fly to the light
Where I can dream no more
So I'm bleeding

Time was always running short
Grasping the vanity of thought
I'll abolish time and space
And set my soul out of this space
It's just a fire I've started
And since we'll vanish without a fight
I'm going first

So dark, so empty
I cross the line of death
So dark, so pretty
I die away from earth

Now I leave the endless night
My soul will fly to the light
Where I can dream no more
So I'm bleeding
