

System Syn, For Memories You'll Never Have

for memories you&#039;ll never have here&#039;s to you for the life you&#039;ll never lead pour another round now close up inside careful not to let anyone in for the life we&#039;ll never share

as the sun revolves around you do you recognize your beauty do you know that all their eyes adore you so perfect in your innocence
this beauty of the memories you&#039;ll never have for emotions I could never expect you to express and for the person who you think I am let&#039;s bury all that let&#039;s put up a wall of barbed wire in between our human sides so between the two of us no one ever has to see our minefields our desolate playgrounds who&#039;s sand is truly the ash of our adolescence

for the life we&#039;ll never share
