

Szymon Wydra & Carpe Diem, Intense (feat. Tracey Coryell)

pain behind my smile
love behind my Curse
those mixed emotions got intense for better or for worse as long as we shall live you can always count on my

together hand in hand
nothing to pretend
affections to adore
feelings to explore
embrace in twilight zone
known and wide unknown

in spite of stores and rains we made it through whit grace in spite of winds against we dance for better or worse
as long as we shall live

and nothing to pretend
and feelings to explore

connecting souls are breaking walls

in perfect form
