

T3chnophob1a, Wrapped In Eternit

The neocoffin where I lay
Was my holocaust day by day
In a bed of tumoral dreams
I slept benighted in acid thrills
It's my own built guillotine
The blackest necrosis I'm in
I'm reaching while I rest
Decay stages in my pest
Desolation... sepulchral plastic
Isolation... cancer majestic
I cannot break it
And I cannot breathe here
They cannot hear me
And no one could save me
Wrapped in eternit
I was lowered down in this crypt
Descent into radioactive pit
There's no angel by my side
To kiss my lips and say 'good night'
I'm rotting bone by bone
With an amianthus-made tombstone
My toxic grave won't be plundered
Sealing my eyes nine feet under
Desolation... decomposition
Isolation... can't change my position
I cannot break it
And I cannot breathe here
They cannot hear me
And no one could save me
Wrapped in eternit
