

Tabula Rasa, Nashville

Left so early for a reason
Poetry digest from that night
The place we slept was so deceiving
Keep a switchblade by your side

Better watch the steps we take
Security
Check our vans, let us escape this place
Security

How'd the five of you enjoy the show?
'Cause no one else came

A roof top view of the city
Always kept a watchful eye
For what these people were doing
They don't want us to stay

How'd the five of you enjoy the show?
'Cause no one else came

We all began to turn in,
Tired from the night
The last ones up
Saw what was happening
All night long
People walking through these doors
Something's going down
Should we get out now?

Better watch the steps we take
Security
Check our vans, let us escape this place
Security
