

Tad Dreis, I Said I

I kissed your scarf this morning
It was hanging off my bed
I kissed it like a lover
And this is what I said

I said I miss you here this morning
I'll see you this afternoon
I miss you, even though
I'll see you soon

I kissed your heart this morning
It felt just like my shirt
The one you kind of borrowed
And told me afterwards

You said you took it to remember
While I was away
I said I think you take one
Every day

In my arms, you're never too near
I said I said I loved you
But I knew you couldn't hear

So I kissed your cheek this morning
Instead of just your clothes
Softly said I'll see you
You smiled with your eyes closed

And it was icy, but you kissed me
On the nose
I said I, you said you should really go
I said I, you said it's okay, I know
