Tadeusz Lech, Green, Green Grass of Home | No

The old hometown looks the same as I step down from the train And there to meet me is my mama and papa Down the road I look and there comes Mary hair of gold and lips like cherries It's good to touch the green green grass of home Yes they've all come to meet me arms areaching smiling sweetly It's so good to touch the green green grass of home The old house is still standing though the paint is cracked and dry And there's that old oak tree that I used to play on And down the lane I'd walk with my sweet Mary hair of gold and lips like cherries It's good to touch the green green grass of home

Yes they've all come to meet me arms areaching smiling sweetly

Lord it's so good to touch the green green grass of home

Then I awake and look around me at four grey walls that surround me

And I realized that I was only dreaming

For there's a guard and there's a sad old padre arm in arm we'll walk at daybreak

Once again I'll touch the green green grass of home

Yes they'll all come to see me in the shade of that old oak tree

As they lay me neath the green green grass of home
