Taff Russ, Table In The Wilderness

There's a table in the Wilderness

Where the blind can see

And the poor possess

Where the weak are strong

And the first one's last

There's a table in the Wilderness

There's a table in the Wilderness

Where the blessed sing

of his tenderness

Where the lame can walk and the weary rest

At the table in the Wilderness

When you search so hard for the promised land

But the earth won't yield to your blistered hands

And you hang your head

And you wipe your brow

And you shout it out, shout it out

There's a table in the Wilderness

Where the blind can see

and the poor possess

Where the weak are strong

And the first one's last

There's a table in the Wilderness

There's a table in the Wilderness

When you close your eyes kneeling by your bed All the working hours spinning through your head

You remember the place

That your heart desires

Where you found life, you found life

At the table in the wilderness

Where the blindcan see

And the poor possess

Where the weak are strong

And the first one's last

There's a table in the Wilderness

There's a table in the Wilderness

Where the blind can see

And the poor possess

Ever thankful for

Being honored guests

At the table in the Wilderness

There's a table in the Wilderness

Ther's a table in the Wilderness

All is welcome

Living Water

Come find Life

Come find Peace

Come find Rest
