

Tait, Holding Out For Grace

Looking out my front door
I see a frantic world desperate for more
Quick fix at your fingertips
The longer it takes the harder it gets

But I'll wait for You
To give me everything I need
I'm gonna wait for You
You make my life complete
Yeah, You know You do

We want it all and we want it now
Caught in a high speed chase, can't slow down
Headed for a panic attack
I gotta get off this one way track

So I'll wait for You
To give me everything I need
I'm gonna wait for You
You make my life complete

I'm gonna wait wait wait for You
Cause you're the perfect one for me
I'm gonna wait wait wait for You
Oh yeah

I know You see the deepest part of me
But still Your love for me is a mystery

Wait for You to give me everything I need
I'm gonna wait wait wait for You
Ooh You make my life complete

I'm gonna wait for You
To give me everything I need
I'm gonna wait wait wait for You
I'll be waiting waiting waiting waiting

To give me everything I need
I'm gonna wait wait wait for You
God You make my life complete, yeah

I'm gonna wait for You
Oh yeah
