

Takida, Evil Eye

You say: I got nothing help me just one more time

The same old lies when you're talking to me and your disguise transparent for my eyes, it's been a while but I can recognize it, the dark is in your mind

On and on, it's haunting you, you can't escape, you mean to be true, it doesn't mind, you are down with it

You say: I got nothing help me just one more time
-But I don't have a reason, don't wanna change my mind

Evil eye, it's nothing new, you're victimized, he's got you, well alright, it doesn't matter where you are he will be there

On line, and now I'm sad,
I don't wanna help you realize it's taken over you and now it's breaking
