

Takida, Losing

Is this all of me, is there nothing more of me than this?
I would rather be one of the faces that you'll miss no
Do you care?
Well I don't know no
I'm struggling not to let go

Won't you lift me up, lift me up or else I'll never stop
Don't you leave me alone, I've been through hell now show me heaven

I'm losing all of the time
I'm losing
I'm losing please change my mind
I'm losing

This is all of me, there is nothing more of me than this,
I cannot be the well adjusted, show me heaven

And I've been through this as long as I remember my life
