

Takida, No Reason Why

How many times will you come back to me
Before you realize, I'm not setting you free
You're going nowhere now
You're going back to where you started
You're going nowhere, you're sleeping alone
What is wrong with you, I don't wanna sleep with you
I just wanna feel the things that you feel
I don't like it but I want it

Where do you like it
I can do that thing you always wanted
And for no reason why, no reason why

It's not easy 'cause I see you all the time
Where do you like it?
