

Takida, Sanctuary (Here We Are)

Here we are, we're the flame, join us now, be our slaves in the crowd Let go of your self, be the fuel tonight

Here we are, once again, watch us now, from the pit, make us proud
The moment is here and the time is right it's getting closer We're not just another showdown

Into the night, out of the underground Forcing the light, shine up the sanctuary now

Here we are, with a scream, and your hands making love to the beat, the feeling is there, no one is alone

Here we are, just for you, see the magic that grows in your eyes

You will see us again
Like a ray of light
You will see us again
But remember tonight
