

Takida, Settle Down

We're laying here and now you're alone
The worst I've been and now you're alone

We know that you look for better
We know that I am not, I am

Hold on, hold on
I can't wait too long

I'm not your friend, how would that be?
If I was your friend how would that be?

I don't know who you belong to
I don't know where you belong

Sit down won't you settle down
Sit down, sit down
